June  |  July  |  August 2019
Pick up your reading log starting May 17. Babies, kids and teens will earn amazing prizes for reaching weekly reading goals. Adults can set their own reading goals and will be entered into weekly prize drawings and a grand prize drawing. New this summer, read for bonus weeks 7 and 8 for additional chances to win great prizes. The last day to pick up prizes is August 9. This program is sponsored in large part by donations from area businesses. We greatly appreciate their support. For a complete list of donors, please see page 12.

For more weekly fun, come to the library and participate in our scavenger hunts for all ages. You never know what you’ll find or what you’ll learn!

Let your summer reading adventure begin!
Camp 801 Recording Studio
Tuesday, June 4 | 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. OR 2:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. | REGISTER

Foundation directors wanted
Join us Thursday, May 16 at 7 p.m. at the Library

The Library’s new Foundation recently received 501c3 non-profit status from the IRS and is in need of additional directors to help plan and participate in some exciting fundraising events currently in the works. The Foundation generally meets at the library every month or two.

A love for the Library is a must! Creativity, networking skills, and enthusiasm are also valued greatly!

The Wauconda Area Library Foundation’s mission is to foster excellence at the Wauconda Area Library by promoting community interest and building financial support to develop the Library’s facilities, collections, services and programs.

For more information about the Foundation and how you can participate in planning and activities, please visit the library’s website at wauclib.org (or just Google Wauconda library foundation)!
